

Speaking Engagement Ideas

A Brief Etiquette and Protocol History Lesson

Why we do the seemingly irrelevant things we do.

Meeting and Greeting

You have five seconds to make a first impression, and you don't get to rewind. What your handshake can say about you, and how to correct it if you are sending the wrong message.

Making Introductions

Learn how to execute proper introductions and what to do if you forget a name.

Working a Room

Small talk carries great importance in the business environment. Find out how to enter and exit a conversation gracefully.

Eating and Drinking During a Social Gathering

The plates are small for a reason.

A Crash Course in Dining Skills

This is probably not the first time you have wished for Cliff Notes instead of having to actually wade through "the whole book".

International Protocol

Pick up a few suggestions to enhance your relationships when you are the foreigner in a foreign land, or when an international visitor is in your office.

Rollins Rules' Top Ten Etiquette Issues, and What to Do About Them

If He Really Is "The Best Man," Why Didn't the Bride Marry Him?

Do you have another hot topic or a special interest? Make a request. Mrs. Rollins specializes in extemporaneous Q&A sessions.

www.rollinsrules.com